A GRAND national reunion of the Fleming family is to be held in Muncie, Indiana on Wednesday, August 22, 1894. There are many of this family living in Provo and in different parts of Utah. Their ancestors came from Normandy to England with William the Conqueror in 1066. There have been two noted reunions of late years in 1891 and in 1893. At the 1893 session it was decided to call a national reunion for 1894. It bids fair to be a most joyful event, and an important one to all who have Fleming blood in their veins.

President Cleveland Has Signed the Bill

AND UTAH IS A STATE.

Did the Deed This Forenoon, July 17th, in the Good Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety Four.

Washington, July 17.—[Special to THE DISPATCH.]—President Cleveland signed the Utah Statehood bill this morning. Let all Utah now shout for joy.

New York Cash Store Assigned.

Notwithstanding the fact that business at the New York Cash store, for the times, has been reasonably good, a few bills falling due at once, and while collections are hard and cash scarce, has convinced Herman Jacobsen, the proprietor, that the best and safest policy for all concerned is to assign, and in consequence assignment papers were last evening filed with Recorder Daniels, John W. Langly of Salt Lake city is named as the assignee and to him is transferred the stock of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, furnishing goods, iron safe, personal property, furniture, etc., now contained in the building, No. 14 Centre street, Provo, in which Mr. Jacobson has been conducting his business. Also a certain lot of jewelry held by the Provo Commercial and Savings bank as collateral security on a note, five thousand shares in the Gold Bloss Mining Co., book accounts, papers and vouchers relating to the business dealings, property and affairs of Mr. Jacobson.

Mr. Jacobson has designated as preferred creditors each and every person in Utah who holds a claim against him, and it is as certain as night and day that they will be paid dollar for dollar.
The second class creditors are not named in the papers, but Mr. Jacobson says that he is confident that they also will receive their full due and that before long, that the resources are far in excess in value of the liabilities.

The preferred creditors are:
Simon Brothers, notes $2,500 00 Mrs. F. Levy, notes 1,400 00 Jake Schwartz, wages 240 00 Provo Commercial & Savings bank, borrowed money 400 00 Hyman Eckstein, borrowed money 500 00
Simms Grocery company 20 00

One of the most important, but one of the most difficult, things of a powerful mind is to be its own master. A pond may lie quiet in a plain, but a lake wants mountains to compass and hold it in.—Addison.

The works of Aristotle comprised more than 400 treatises on various subjects. The manuscripts which survive of his writings were accidentally discovered in an advanced stage of decay in an old chest.

Mrs. Spendleign—Don't you think, dear, that the way I dress is really fetching?
Mr. Spendleign (groaning)—I should say I did! It is fetching me into the bankruptcy court!—Hullo.

Scrofula Tumors

Salt Rheum, Nervousness,
Other Troubles

Complication of Diseases Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Ben. Shetterly
Buchanan, Mich.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Dear Sirs: From childhood I had been a great sufferer from scrofula, having a tumor on my left breast and another in my stomach. I was also afflicted with a salt rheum. We spent much money for medical attendance and remedies, but all to no avail. Three years ago I commenced to run down. The trouble with my stomach would not allow me to eat and even milk distressed me very much. My right hand and arm became almost paralyzed, and my stomach difficulty was fast developing into a serious female trouble.

I became very nervous and was subject to fainting spells. Dark spots appeared before my eyes. The doctors failed to help me. In the spring I read about the wonderful cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla and decided to give it a trial. After taking it a short time I commenced to feel better, my digestion improved, and the tumors I have done

burning sensation in my stomach and bowels ceased. Shortly I was able to work about the house, standing on my feet considerably, something I had not done for months before. For two summers I have done

My Own Work Alone.

I shall continue taking Hood's Sarsaparilla as it is my cheapest hired servant. I am a farmer's wife, and am engaged in 120 acres. We think Hood's Vegetable Pills can be beaten, and we have great faith in Hood's Sarsaparilla."
